The Central Attack u13AA coaches and evaluators would like to thank all players for their interest and hard work over the past week for participating in tryouts.

This level of interest and the hard work shown by all players has resulted in difficult decisions as part of the selection process over the past number of days.

All players were reminded at the end of today's ice time that they all should be proud of making it this far in tryouts, as well as to continuing to focus on furthering their development and having fun this upcoming hockey season.

Congratulations to the following players who have been selected to play for the AA Central Attack teams.
